

Profile of Saleem Raza Asif, Advisor

He is a graduate of National School of Public Policy (NSPP), Lahore, Pakistan's premier institute for training of senior ranking officers. His formal education includes M. Phil in English (Linguistics), Post-graduate degree in Law and Post-graduate Diplomas (PGDS) in Taxation and Labour Laws. During his career as a civil servant, he has worked on several key administrative positions including Chief Commissioner Inland Revenue, Regional Tax Offices, Bahawalpur, Sargodha & Multan, and Director General (Law), Federal Board of Revenue. He was also selected/posted Accountant Member, Appellate Tribunal Inland Revenue (ATIR), Lahore. He remained Convener/Chairman (Sub Expert Group) of FBR's Expert Group for carrying out specialized study in identification of Tax Gaps in Salary Reruns. He is Life member of the Society of Pakistan English Language Teachers (SPELT). He is also analyst, Pakistan Broadcasting Corporation (PBC). He is a prose writer and his short stories in English language have been published in journals of repute.