

Ahmed Sheraz

A business professional with extensive experience in international business development, export operations, and global partnerships. Based in Warsaw, Poland, with strong professional networks across Europe and international markets, representing businesses at exhibitions and developing cross-border B2B relationships.